The Alaska Heritage Resources Survey (AHRS) is an inventory of reported prehistoric, historic, and paleontological sites within the State of Alaska and is maintained by the Office of History and Archaeology (OHA). This is a restricted data set only available to authorized users under a signed User Agreement with the Alaska Office of History and Archaeology. The data is restricted to protect sensitive cultural sites against unauthorized disturbance. Access to the AHRS and related information is closed to the general public. Restricted or confidential site information is withheld from public records disclosure under state law (AS 40.25.110) and under the federal Freedom of Information Act (PL 89-554). The restriction of site inventory information is allowed by AS 40.25.120(a)(4), Alaska State Parks Policy and Procedure No. 50200, the National Historic Preservation Act (PL 89-665, 16 U.S.C. 470), and the Archaeological Resources Protection Act (PL 96-95).

Authorized Users include, but are not limited to, representatives of federal, state, or local governments or agencies, scientific researchers, or organizations or individuals conducting cultural resources surveys aimed at fulfilling federal and state cultural resource protection activities.

Please list your report request here or attach a list.

Reports associated with the AHRS data set contain confidential information. This agreement allows for the sharing of specific reports with those that do not require access to the entire AHRS data set.

By signing this agreement:

- I acknowledge that I understand the confidential nature of the information contained in cultural resource reports associated with the AHRS;
- I will keep the report confidential and not copy or share the report with unauthorized persons.
