EVACUATION CHECKLIST

5 P's of Evacuation:

1. PEOPLE

People and, if safely possible, pets and other animals/livestock.

2. PRESCRIPTIONS

Prescriptions, with dosages; medicines; medical equipment; batteries or power cords; eyeglasses; and hearing aids.

3. PAPERS

Papers, including important documents (hard copies and/or electronic copies saved on external hard drives or portable thumb drives).

4. PERSONAL NEEDS

Personal needs – such as clothes, food, water, first aid kit, cash, phones, and chargers. Also, items for people with disabilities and others with access and/or functional needs, such as older adults, children, and those with Limited English Proficiency.

5. PRICELESS ITEMS

Priceless items, including pictures, irreplaceable mementos, and other valuables.

1 | READY

Talk to local fire department personnel about preparing your home for a wildland fire threat. Work to prepare your property by creating

DEFENSIBLE SPACE:

- ★ Clean up or relocate combustible material from around your home.
- ★ Keep grass mowed short.
- ★ Trim trees and bushes, allowing ample space between your home and landscape vegetation.

2 | SET

BE ALERT. Stay informed about the latest news and information, including updates from local media, fire departments, and local public safety authorities.

Prepare a GO BAG and include items from the 5 P's of Evacuation.

Create your own EVACUATION PLAN:

- ★ Plan and practice multiple exit routes from your home and neighborhood.
- ★ Assign a meeting place in case you are separated.
- ★ Make sure you're familiar with your local emergency notification and evacuation systems.

3 | GO!

- ★ LEAVE NOW!
- ★ Get your "go kit" and execute your evacuation plan.
- ★ Leave well before the impending threat reaches your community or neighborhood.
- ★ Cooperate with local authorities during evacuation and re-entry processes.
